

This form is an essential legal requirement in order for AOUG to comply with the new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) coming into force this May. All members must complete, sign and return this form to AOUG Office, Walton Hall, Milton Keynes, MK7 6AA, to ensure AOUG is complying with the law.

Failure to return this form by 1st May '18, means no communications after 25th May '18.

AOUG only uses your data to facilitate your membership information, however under the new regulations, even though you have previously given AOUG permission to use your contact details for the purpose of your membership communications, we now need to ensure that you fully understand the purposes for which your information is used and the method of contact that you agree to. You also need to be aware of your right to withdraw your consent, to your details being used should you change your mind at any time. Please note that no data will be passed to any individuals or companies without your consent and that any individual given access to your data will have signed an annual AOUG Data Protection Form to ensure they comply with all current regulations.
