

AGM / Spring Weekend - Optional Excursions

18th – 20th May 2018

Places are limited so advanced booking is essential. (Please keep a record of your bookings.)

Friday 18th May 2018. 2pm.

Coach trip to Robinsons Brewery Visitor Centre, Stockport. This is an opportunity to view how beer is made. There will be a guided tour around the brewery with an opportunity to taste the beer, should you want to. You can also visit the Robinsons Shire Horses as part of the excursion.

Saturday 19th May 2018. 9.30am.

This excursion is for friends or family, who are not attending the actual AGM meeting. They will have the opportunity of visiting the birthplace of the Co-operative Society i.e. The Rochdale Pioneers' Museum in Rochdale. This excursion will be by taxi or mini bus, depending on numbers attending.

Saturday 19th May 2018. 2pm

Coach trip to see the Hat Works, Stockport, which is the only hatting museum in the UK. There will be a guided tour to take you through its development and the industry of hatting. You will learn why there is a saying, 'Mad as a Hatter'. There is a café and gift shop available.

Sunday 20th May 2018. 9.30am

Coach trip to The Lowry in Salford, Manchester. Here you have the opportunity to visit the Lowry Theatre and view Lowry paintings or you may like to walk around Media City. There is also the opportunity to visit the Imperial War Museum next door. The choice is yours.
